HOLDING CHANGE IN YOUR HANDS!

Your choice is empowering cocoa farming communities in West Africa to thrive. The cocoa beans for the Choceur Choco Changer are sourced via the Open Chain by Tony's Chocolonely. By adopting their 5 Sourcing Principles, we joined the mission to end exploitation in cocoa. Together, we can amplify our positive impact on cocoa farmers and change the norm in the cocoa industry by working on ending poverty, illegal child labour and deforestation.

1. TRACEABLE BEANS

We source directly from the farmer cooperatives, which means we know where our beans are grown and under what circumstances.

2. A HIGHER PRICE

We pay an additional premium on top of current certification premiums to enable farmers to earn a living income and invest in their farms.

3. STRONG FARMERS

We promote professional farming cooperatives and farms, giving the farmers and their self-organised groups the power to structurally change inequality.

4. THE LONG TERM

We commit to cooperatives and farmers for at least five years, giving them income security and enabling them to make better, long-term decisions about their business.

5. PRODUCTIVITY & QUALITY

We help farmers professionalise: improve yields and get access to markets.
